The Internal Revenue Service Antifraud Commission has found 3 fraud attempts regarding your bank account. Someone enrolled your credit card to our Electronic Pay System - EFTPS - and tried to pay some taxes. Due to these attempts, some of your money were lost and your remaining funds were blocked. We are sorry for this inconvenience but this is the standard procedure in order to try to recover your lost money. Although, you may unblock your funds, if needed it, by accessing our webpage through the link provided here. Once again, we are sorry for this inconvenience, and we will do our best to recover your money.
